THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

OUR CODIVISIONAL MODEL

Malden Catholic has always prided itself on its ability to offer a quality private education in a single-gender learning environment. We are unwaveringly committed to delivering that to your son. With the launch of our separate, all-girls division of Malden Catholic, Malden Catholic School for Girls, we are thrilled to offer your son the "best of both worlds:" a single-gender education sensitive to his needs as a young man, with athletic and extracurricular opportunities for healthy socialization and collaboration with young women. Below, see how MC's codivisional model works:

MALDEN CATHOLIC

The Codivisional High School

Plus Ultra is not just a tagline.
It is not just one value among many.
It is our way of life at Malden Catholic.

Our way is not just to get along, but also to form meaningful relationships that endure.

Our way is not only to care for ourselves, but also to care deeply for our school, our families, our communities, and our earth.

Our way is not merely to be a community of faith, but also a community that lives out our faith in transformative ways beyond 99 Crystal Street.

Our way is not simply to aspire to do well, but also to do good as young people of moral character and integrity.

Our way is not just to learn, but also to challenge and be challenged in our striving for success.

Our way is not to serve halfheartedly for the sake of serving, but rather to labor intentionally for justice, unity, and peace, without thought of recognition or reward.

This is the way of Plus Ultra.
This is "More Beyond."
This is Malden Catholic.

PURSUE ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

WHERE CAN MC TAKE YOU?

At Malden Catholic, we take our commitment to providing a rigorous college-preparatory education seriously, and our track record proves it. Our faculty and counseling department work hard to instill in each student a "college mindset" early in their MC careers. Our superior college placement ranks ahead of the vast majority of private and public secondary schools throughout the Greater Boston area. Nearly 99% of our graduates attend four-year colleges and universities. In the last five years alone, our young men have attended and received substantial scholarships to the following institutions:

- Harvard University
- Columbia University
- Cornell University
- Georgetown University
- Tufts University
- New York University
- Notre Dame
- Amherst College
- U.S. Naval Academy
- Boston College
- Holy Cross
- The University of Chicago

College preparation is central to our mission at MC, but we believe that the greatest gift we can offer your son is an atmosphere where the love of learning is infectious. Inspired by the spirit of Plus Ultra ("more beyond") we continually challenge our young men to exceed even their most ambitious academic expectations. A Malden Catholic Man can expect that "just good enough" will never be the goal for his academic and personal achievement.
